

Based on information supplied to us by the Indiana Attorney General's Office about an upcoming challenge by businesses, we are opposed to the FCC weakening the Indiana Telephone Privacy law. We are on the Indiana list and the national list to keep unwanted telephone calls made from businesses. We do not want to be contacted by our bank, credit card company or long distance company. The last thing we want is any call that interrupts our privacy.